VOL. I No. 246.

BRYAN, TEXAS, SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 13, 1896.

Price, 5 cts

CONGRESSMAN JOE BAILEY

Expressed his ideas very well on the Silver question in his speech at Bryan last Tuesday the 8th.

Bailey's appearance shows that he is a well fed man (no allusion to the pie counter). If he lived in Bryan he would buy groceries exclusively from

ED. HALL.

Then he would always have THE BEST. The best at Hall's costs you no more than inferior goods elsewhere.

A FATAL ACCIDENT.

One Man Dead and Another's Recovery Doubtful.

WAS CAUSED FROM A FIREDAMP.

Three Men Were Blasting in a Well and It Is Supposed the Men Descended Too Soon After a Blast—Both Were Overcome by the Poisonous Damp and One Fell and Broke His Neck.

COPEVILLE, Tex., Sept. 12.—While Henry Morgan, G. T. Hornbuckle and Mr. Self were blasting in a well on the Morgan farm an accident happened that caused the death of one man and probably the death of another.

Hornbuckle and Self let Morgan down into the well to fill up the bucket with dirt. It is supposed that he went down too soon after the blast and was overcome by the poisonous damp caused by the explosion. He told them to draw him out. They succeeded in getting him to the top, when he let loose, as the damp had entirely overcome him by that time. He fell to the bottom, about 12 or 15 feet, breaking his neck, besides other injuries.

Mr. Hornbuckle was let down after Mr. Morgan. He was also overcome by the damp, and became speechless, and it was some time before Mr. Self could get sufficient help to draw them out.

Morgan was taken out dead and Horn-buckle so near that his recovery was thought doubtful, and at this writing he thought to be improving.

MORE GOLD COMING.

Complete Arrangement Not Perfected but the Report Out.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—There is a report here that arrangements were underway and well advanced for the shipment of $5,000,000, or $50,000,000 in gold from Europe to this country. Like all the recent shipments of gold in the same direction, it would be simply a gigantic sterling loan, which is of course sent in gold, as the only international medium of exchange.

Inquiry by the foreign houses which handle shipments of that sort met with a general avowal of ignorance of any such contemplated shipment. This was not regarded as proving much, as the agents here are proverbially close about movements not yet consummated.

Cotton Market Unsettled.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The cotton market opened weak at a decline of 12 to 14 points under disappointing Liverpool advices and indications of increased crop estimates. The crop reports are little better. Nall was stated to be ready with a bullish crop estimate, that helped the Liverpool weakness. The unsettled financial condition at New Orleans also caused selling. At 11 o'clock today the market was at its lowest and the prices showed a net decline of 20 to 22 points. The selling was somewhat checked by advices from Fall River, showing a firm market there.

Sale of Cotton Fell on Him.

KAUFMAN, Tex., Sept. 12.—About 10 miles northeast of Kaufman at Jim Smith's gin, while some men were rolling a bale of cotton out of the upper story of the gin, Mr. Smith walked under the door and the bale fell on him.
He was knocked into unconsciousness and it was thought for some time that he was dead. He will recover, but it will be a long time before he is entirely over the injury thus received.

Called Him a "Rat."

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 12.—R. McWilliams, an aged white man, was arrested by Officer Dayton and Corporal Ketchum in the hallway of the first recorder's court for disturbing the peace. He wanted to whip the officer because he thought the latter called him a "rat."

McWilliams was fined $2.50 or 10 days, but the fine was subsequently remitted.

Jaurez Declines to Run.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 12.—Hon.—Tom L. Johnson, when defeated for congress in 1894, announced that he would be a candidate this year. He comes out in a letter declining to run on the ground that being a believer in a currency issued by the government without metallic basis, his candidacy might work injury to the Democratic party.

Jaurez Still Under Arms.

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 12.—The city of Jaurez is still under arms, awaiting an attack on her customhouse.

This score will result in Jaurez being made regimental headquarters and the military post considerably enlarged.
Mexican troops were still patrolling the riverfront and the outskirts of the city.

A Former Democrat Chosen.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Sept. 12.—The Republicans of the Eighth Alabama district in session at Decatur, nominated Oscar B. Hundley of Huntsville, for congress. Hundley is at present senator from his county, elected as a Democrat.
Several weeks ago he announced his change to the Republican belief.

Five Hours Bait.

SAN ANGELO, Tex., Sept. 12.—A rain of five hours' duration fell here Thursday night. It was followed by another shower Friday, with favorable indications for a continuance of the downpour.
Forage and milo maize crops, as well as grass, will be greatly benefited.

BESSIE LITTLE'S MURDER.

More Evidence Accumulating Against Albert Franz as the Murderer.

DAYTON, O., Sept. 12.—Although Bessie Little was murdered over a week ago, there is still intense interest here in the case, which is developing into a murder of as much deliberation as that of Catherine Ling at Minneapolis, and into almost as atrocious a disposition of the body as that of Pearl Bryan, whose head was never found. When it was proven that Bessie Little was last seen on the night of Thursday, Aug. 27, riding with her lover, Albert Franz, the latter said she had shot herself while they were in the buggy together. There were defensive theories about the lovers agreeing to die together and that Franz did not carry out his part of the contract, but every day evidence is accumulating to show that Franz deliberately drove the girl out to an obscure place along Stillwater river, shot her and threw her body from a bridge into the river. The next night Franz's barn burned, destroying his bloodstained buggy and other traces.

His own family testified that when Franz returned home on the night of the murder he was greatly excited and fell in a swoon. On being revived he told them his story about Bessie shooting herself while they were out riding, and that in his fright he threw the body over the bridge into the river and hastened home. He has stuck to this story to the officers since his arrest, but in doing so he has made many admissions that convict him.

The missing link in the Pearl Bryan case was the head. In this case it is the revolver which Franz admits he threw into the river with the body. Chief of Police Ferrell, knows when Franz bought a revolver previous to the murder and is doing everything to find the missing weapon. If it is found and identified as the weapon that Franz bought then the evidence is complete.
Chief Ferrell has had the river dragged.
He resorted to strong magnets and every means known. Yesterday crowds lined the river banks while Diver Graham of Cincinnati was going down and scouring the bottom of the river. Every disclosure intensifies the degree of the crime, as well as the feeling in this community.

Funeral of James Lewis.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The funeral of James Lewis, the actor, will take place from the Little Church Around the Corner tomorrow afternoon. Rev. Dr.
Houghton officiating. The musical features will be furnished by the orchestra of Daly's theater, under the direction of William Withers. The honorary pallbearers will be Augustin Daly, John B. Schofield, Henry E. Abbey, John Drew, Henry Miller, Dr. Holbrook Curtis, William Sampson, Sol Smith Russell and George Clarke.

Coal Shaft Destroyed.

BRAZIL, Ind., Sept. 12.—The large shaft of the Isaac McIntosh Coal company at Caseyville, north of here, was destroyed by fire Friday evening. The flames caught from the boiler on the shingle roof of the boilerroom and spread to the tipples and blacksmith shop, totally destroying everything above ground and ruining the valuable machinery. The danger signal was sounded to the 300 miners at work under ground. The loss is about $5000, fully covered by insurance.

She Was Shot.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 12.—Rachel Turner reached the city from Pointe Coupee, suffering from gunshot wounds of the head and left arm. She states she was shot by Ike Johnson. The latter attempted to abduct her daughter and she interfered. The woman was sent to the hospital for treatment.

Woodchip Will Be Small.

COLORADO, Tex., Sept. 12.—The fall woodchip here will be very small, as there is absolutely no market for the staple. Several large flockowners have written to buyers, offering to shear, if they could get 5 cents a pound for the clip, but even this low price was refused.

Blind Tigers Baited.

ITASKA, Tex., Sept. 12.—The Itaska officers have been hot after blind tigers lately. Four men were arrested and put under appearance bonds of $500 each on charges of unlawfully selling intoxicating liquor in a local option predict.

Bryan May Not Come.

TERRELL, Tex., Sept. 12.—Dr. C. M.
Rosen, chairman of the committee on invitation to secure W. J. Bryan for a speech in Texas, has received a letter from national headquarters, which states that Mr. Bryan is not likely to visit Texas during the present campaign.

Arkansas Official Returns.

LITTLE ROCK, Sept. 12.—Official returns from 31 counties give Jones, Democrat, 45,690; Remmel, Republican, 12,511; Piles, Populist, 7216.
Miller, Prohibitionist, 343. Jones' majority 23,920.

Killed by a Gambler.

NARVELL, Sept. 12.—Botts McCall, a well known gambler, shot and killed a negro here. Several other desperado fights among negroes have been reported at police headquarters from various public resorts which may result in fatalities.

AFAIRS IN CUBA.

No One Will Be Allowed to Be Neutral by the Insurgents.

HAVANA, Sept. 12.—It is the rebels now who are making war upon Cuban pacifists. Under a late decree of Maximo Gomez, the insurgent leader, those who have attempted to preserve a neutral attitude must show their colors and come out openly for one side or the other. Able-bodied men who are non-combatants must take a machete in hand and strike for Cuba and independence or abandon their fields, take refuge within the cities and towns held by the government forces and shoulder a rifle in defense of Spain and the crown.
Neutrals in future will not be respected in time of war. Gomez says there should be no pacifists save helpless women and innocent children.

By a strange coincidence both he and Captain General Weyler have upon this subject identical ideas, and, stranger still, each is opposed to allowing planters gather their coffee and cocoa crops until after the war is fought to a finish.

From all over the island dispatches bring report of instances where Gomez' orders are being rigidly carried into effect. Beyond the Viñetas, but a few legions from Havana, Ramon Velez, a poor peasant, was dragged from his humble hut, shot and afterward horribly mangled by an insurgent hand before the eyes of his wife and children, whose appeals for mercy availed him naught. His crime was a failure to obey a previous intimation from the insurgents that he should either join them or move into town.

On the Fortuna estate, near Artemisa, an old widow with a house full of small children, was driven out of house and home, the torch being applied to the building, while their humble plantings adjacent, were destroyed.

In Matanzas province, near Roque, Nicolas Hernandez, a peon, employed on La Espana plantation, owned by the former minister, Romero Rebledo, of Madrid, was seized by robbers and hanged to a tree in front of his own door. Andres Redondo, foreman of the Olympo sugar estate, near Cimarrones, was also taken out a few nights ago by a party of rebels, who left him dangling to a neighboring tree. At Macua, near Sagua, a number of woodcutters were menaced with the rope in the event of an attempt to continue work. In Guabo and Calabazar five coalburners, o.s.s. a boy of 10 ten years, have been hanged for persisting in their work in defiance of rebel warnings. Two others were hanged near Quemado de Guines and near Caguaguna. Don Estanislao Martinez, a rich creek stockman, was likewise put out of the way. In the vicinity of Santiago de Cuba country people are being held up and robbed on the country roads.

Has Spanish Troops on Board.

MALEA, Sept. 12.—The Spanish transport Montserrat has arrived here from Barcelona and sailed again for Manila.
She has 1167 troops on board.

They Held a Conference.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The Herald's correspondent in Rio de Janeiro sends word to that paper that President Moraes of Brazil has had a conference with General Cerqueira, the minister of state, over the recent Italian troubles. It was the object of the conference to devise a plan to avoid a rupture in the diplomatic relations of Italy and Brazil. Congress has adjourned until October.

Want to Join the Expedition.

CAIRO, Sept. 12.—Lieutenant J. H.
Beacon of the Third United States infantry, now on leave of absence, who accompanied the Japanese army in the field during the late war between Japan and China, has arrived here. He hopes to join the Dongola expedition.

On the Way to Candia.

CANEA, S. P. 12.—Two French third-class cruiser frigates arrived here today and is going to Candia to relieve the Lamia. The Neptune leaves here on Sept. 16, and will be replaced by the Mareca at Suda.

Died of Lockjaw.

LETING, Tex., Sept. 12.—John Johnson, who has for many years teamed between Leting and Prairie Lea, died here from lockjaw. About 10 days ago he stepped on a nail, which resulted as above.

Class Barton Returns Home.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Among the passengers on the steamer Umbria of the Conard line from Liverpool today was Miss Clara Barton, representative of the Red Cross society, who returned from the scene of Armenian troubles.

Struck by Lightning.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 12.—In the northern part of this county the residence of J. K. Asker was struck by lightning and completely demolished and three of the family badly shocked.

Railroad Depot Hobbed.

SPRING, Tex., Sept. 12.—The International and Great Northern railway depot was broken into here Thursday night and about $100 of the company's money stolen.

Assassinated by His Clerk.

BOSTON, Sept. 12.—Bernado Ambrosoil, proprietor of the famous Italian restaurant here, was assassinated by his clerk, Charles C. Bacigalupo. Bacig-alupo is insane.
